1 INSTRUCTIONS

Please follow all instructions closely. We appreciate your cooperation in the preparation of the proceedings.

1.1 Page Limits

- All submissions should contain a maximum of 14 pages, including two-column body text, figures, tables, and references.
- All final camera ready papers must be limited to 13 body pages.
- Please note that pages with ANY non-reference material will be counted as a body page.
- Up to 12 body pages are free; ONE additional body page can be purchased for 150 CAD.
- The fee for additional body page must be submitted during conference registration.

1.2 Formatting

When typesetting your paper, please follow the guidelines listed in Table 1. Do NOT include page numbers in the final manuscript.

Permission to make digital or hard copies of all or part of this work for personal or classroom use is granted without fee provided that copies are not made or distributed for profit or commercial advantage and that copies bear this notice and the full citation on the first page. Copyrights for components of this work owned by others than ACM must be honored. Abstracting with credit is permitted. To copy otherwise, or republish, to post on servers or to redistribute to lists, requires prior specific permission and/or a fee. Request permissions from permissions@acm.org.

Make sure to include the names of all authors along with their affiliation and email ID. Please refer to the sample author block in this document.

Ensure that the figures and tables are legible. Please also ensure that you refer to your figures in the main text. Many readers print the papers in gray-scale. Therefore, if you use colors for your figures, ensure that the different colors are distinguishable in gray-scale.

Avoid bad page or column breaks in your main text—i.e., last line of a paragraph at the top of a column or first line of a paragraph at the end of a column. If you begin a new section or sub-section near the end of a column, ensure that you have at least 2 lines of body text on the same column.

1.3 Indexing Concepts

This template enables you to import required indexing concepts for your article from the ACM Computing Classification System (CCS) [1] using an indexing support tool [2] found in the ACM Digital Library (DL) which generates the necessary TeX code once you have selected your terms (and generates XML for Word documents).

It is important to provide the proper indexing information from the ACM Computing Classification System (CCS). Accurate semantic tagging provides a reader with quick content reference; facilitates the DL search for related literature; enables several DL topic functions such as aggregated SIG and journal coverage areas; and helps ACM promote your work in other online resources.

1.4 Reference Formatting

Reference linking and citation counts are facilitated by use of standard reference formats. Please adhere to the in-text citation style and reference format guidelines [3] that we use for ACM publications. If you do not, your paper may be returned to you for proper formatting.

1.5 Copyright Notice

The following ACM Copyright Paragraph must appear on the first page of each paper: Permission to make digital or hard copies of all or part of this work for personal or classroom use is granted without fee provided that copies are not made or distributed for profit or commercial advantage and that copies bear this notice and the full citation on the first page. Copyrights for components of this work owned by others than ACM must be honored. Abstracting with credit is permitted. To copy otherwise, or republish, to post on servers or to redistribute to lists, requires prior specific permission and/or a fee. Request permissions from permissions@acm.org.

2 SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

- Authors will be individually contacted by ACM with instructions on submitting the rights management form. The system will also provide rights management text and a bibliographic strip to appear underneath the copyright notice. Authors are responsible for updating their manuscripts with this information.
- Submit the finalized PDF of your paper labeled as follows: ISCA17_"Lead Author".pdf to bojnordi@cs.utah.edu with the conference name and your submission number in the subject line (e.g., ISCA17 - # - Camera Ready).
- The deadline for submitting the final paper and ACM electronic copyright forms is 11:59pm Eastern Daylight Time (EDT) on Thursday, May 1st, 2017.
